The News.

The Electrician in charge of the Atlantic Telegraph at Trinity Bay, assures the agent of the Associated Press that there is no foundation in the rumor that the cable was a failure. The only difficulty experienced is of an electrical nature, which will undoubtedly be overcome when the most expeditious apparatus is decided upon.

By the giving way of a bridge on the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad on Friday night, two cars full of passengers were smashed and a number of persons badly injured.

PERRY's victory was celebrated at Put-in Bay on Lake Erie, on Saturday. GOV. CHASE, J. R. GIDDINGS, Senator WADE, and a number of other prominent men were present.

A convention of Rail Road Presidents was held at Philadelphia, on Saturday, relative to freight charges.

A Miss HENRY was shot at Pittsburg, on Saturday, by a young man, who was in a state of intoxication, because she refused to speak to him.

Mr. M. B. COOMBS, a young lawyer of this city, committed suicide some days ago at Bangor, Maine.

The New York produce market was dull on Saturday, and wheat is reported to be two cents lower. In our own market wheat declined 3 to 4 cents.

The weather was cool clear and pleasant.

A Timely Warning—Buchanan Men Read!

The Stevens Point Pinery, a veteran Democratic organ, and a staunch and loyal adherent to the flag and fortunes of the BUCHANAN Administration, comments at great length and with much severity, upon the proceedings of the recent Democratic Congressional Convention at Racine. First, as to the candidate selected, BERIAH BROWN, the Pinery says:

This gentleman is well known throughout the State, as the former Editor of the Argus & Democrat, and as having identified himself generally with the political preferences of Gov. Barstow. Whether this will prove an element of division and defeat of the democracy in that district or not we cannot say; should hope not; but the stern opposition to his nomination from the more conservative portion of the convention, to the 60th ballot, should have been a warning to his friends, and counselled them to a withdrawal of his name.

If the Pinery does not like the candidate, still less does it approve the platform. We copy in full what it says on this subject, for the benefit of the BUCHANAN men and Federal Office-holders, who are without an organ in this District, since the News struck its Lecompton colors:

But we have not introduced this subject to object so much to the nomination of Mr. Brown, as to except to the main action of the Convention—its platform. Here it is and the whole of it:

"Resolved, That the Democracy of this Congressional District, adhere, with unwavering fidelity, to the principles adopted by the representatives of the Democracy of the Union at Cincinnati, in 1856, and will labor for their promulgation until they shall have become the universal sentiment of the American People."

Now we shall be told that this is broad enough, being the one in the main, on which Mr. Buchanan was elected, and if broad enough for a Presidential candidate, certainly must be sufficiently so for the electors of the First Congressional District in this State.

This may be all very fine, and is indeed all very well as far as it goes; but applaud it as we may, at this period of time, its adoption by that Convention, after the nomination of Mr Brown, without allusion to the existing state of political issues in the country, can only be regarded as ignoring, if not repudiating the present National Administration. This we regard as a fatal error, and which will probably cost its authors the defeat of their candidate before the People.

The idea of a congressional convention of the democratic party of this state, turning its back on the Administration of the Democratic President of the Nation, is an equivoque, which must rob it in a very great degree of the confidence of all sober and honest democratic voters. For the last few months, the democratic party throughout the state, were daily becoming more and more animated with hope of victory over the shanghais this fall. Union was the word, and the democratic party and its policy, as exhibited in the Administration of Mr. Buchanan, was its watch word. This convention at least, whatever the others may have done, has most effectually lit up the torch of discord. Having repudiated the Administration, as a rallying point, it seems to have none left to which to point its forces.—We are aware there are many calling themselves democrats, who have a desire to leave the veteran statesman whom we have elevated to the head of affairs, without their important support(?) and to take measures thus early, for the succession, and inaugurate action hostile to Mr. Buchanan and his administration. This is a most suicidal policy, and must, if not abandoned, result in the utter defeat and overthrow of the whole democratic party, both here and elsewhere.

THE STAR THAT NEVER SETS.—Vermont has always battled nobly for liberty and right, but her last achievement surpasses all that have preceded it. Her gallant sons, without the stimulus of any peculiarly exciting issue, despising the lukewarmness which the assurance of a victory too generally begets, have just rolled up increased majorities for the advocates of true Republicanism. Her green hills rise amid the habitations of intelligence, morality and education. Her devotion to the cause of Freedom has been coeval with her existence. Even her escape from the tutelage of Colonial childhood, was effected by valor before which the arts of State craft sink in insignificance. In troubles, as in happy times, the "Star that never Sets" has shone to cheer and beckon on the weary champions of their country's good; and with ever deepening radiance, it shall continue to beam forth so long as Freedom's banner waves over the Western World.—Cincinnati Gazette.

VERMONT has set a noble example to her sister States for the Fall Campaign. The Republicans elect all their State Officers, all their Representatives, and carry both branches of the Legislature by increased majorities. They have gained almost 1000 votes even over the "high-water mark" of last year.

PROFITS OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—A writer to the Charleston Mercury states that the Africans found on board the Putnam were purchased on the West coast at from 50 cents to $1, and costing scarcely more than $10 or $15 to be delivered on the coast of Cuba, and were all to be sold by contract at $560 round, or $177,980 for the cargo. He argues that, so long as such enormous profits are to be made by the traffic, it will be carried on, in spite of all the efforts that may be made to prevent it.

REPUBLICAN TICKET IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The following is the full ticket for State officers nominated by the Republican State Convention. All the present officers are nominated for re-election:

For Governor—Nathaniel P. Banks.
For Lieut. Governor—Eliphalet Trask.
For State Treasurer—Moses Tenney.
For Secretary of State—Oliver Warner.
For Attorney-General—H. Phillips.
For Auditor—Charles White.

The Great Mud Carnival.

Ten Thousand Women Floundering in the Mud and Rain—Great display of Crinoline and other unwhisperables

Never was there such a scene in the wide world as that witnessed yesterday afternoon on the Fair Ground. Never were so many white and black, old and young, tall and small, beautiful and bad looking ladies in such a horrible dilemma. The day opened propitiously, with a clouded sky that threatened no rain, and cool breezes which were without any admixture of dust or smoke. The city poured forth her thousands, with all their country relations and visitors, and by one o'clock p. m. the Fair Ground could not have contained less than twenty five thousand people. A little shower that passed over about eleven o'clock excited but small surprise, and did not interfere in the least with the pleasures of the day. About 2 o'clock another drizzle came on which was chiefly instrumental in driving to shelter the hundreds of groups that were taking their pic-nic dinners out among the trees and on the green grass. The afternoon exhibitions were inaugurated with great spirit, the scenes of the ring being witnessed by a densely crowded amphitheatre, containing not less than from fifteen to twenty thousand persons. While the contest between the roadsters was still going on, another drizzle passed over, which was soon succeeded by a dashing thunder-gust with a heavy pour of rain. This drenched all outsiders, and flooded the promenade and steps of the amphitheater with two or three inches of water.

The clouds broke away again and the sun peered curiously out as if to note the effect of his shower upon the scene. Evidently disappointed at the failure of his thunder gust to scatter the crowds, he again withdrew and called up out of the West a very sombre mass of vapors that stretched almost from South to North, and came slowly on with woful portent. It was evident that a long, steady rain was about to set in. The crowd took the alarm, and at about 3 o'clock the rush for omnibuses and other vehicles began. The mud was excessive. The water stood in puddles and ponds all over the grounds and along the path ways. The most decided movement was first noticed at the steps leading down from the promenade of the Amphitheatre which was all muddy and slippery. The descent had to be made and there was no other way for the ladies but to elevate such of their drapery as they desired to preserve from pollution, and make the rush. Down they came singly and in troops. Hundreds of mean and shameless boys and men stationed themselves at the foot of the steps to increase the perplexities and mortification of the ladies. The rain was coming. No time to was be lost. Silk dresses were precious and must be saved, so they were caught up and drawn around the waists. Handsome petticoats were preserved in like manner.—Hoops and crinoline were very inconvenient—Skeleton skirts were totally unmanageable, and in hundreds of cases were left to hang and sway and grin around the forms of their possessors, to the horror of modest men all over the ground. Slippers were entirely engulphed as the wearers plunged from the steps and sought dry land.—Boots and gaiters were all splashed and soiled, pants and hose ——, well, everything outside of the very cuticle itself of bifurcated feminity, was all bedabbled and bespattered with mud and slush.

The rain came steadily on. The crowds in the amphitheater rapidly dispersing, rushed headlong to the entrances of the grounds, and soon the omnibuses in waiting were besieged by thousands of men, women and children, who were frantic in their efforts to gain seats.—Couples and squads ran through the mud up the road to anticipate seats in the returning vehicles. Confusion was at its heighth when the rain came. Then ensued such a scene as we never hope to witness again. There were not omnibuses or wagons for half of the people. The mud was ankle deep, and the rain making it deeper every minute. Women and children were caught up by frantic husbands and fathers and pitched into the doors and windows of the carriages. The horses crowded upon one another—men cursed and raved—screams of terror arose from the women on all sides—some were knocked down in the mud—others fell sprawling under foot—dresses and bonnets were torn and scattered around—many who were afraid to mingle with the crowd, stood upon its verge without shelter of any kind, the rain beating pitilessly upon their finery, streaming down their bare shoulders and necks, washing away their rosy cheeks and dark eye-brows—well, we are not equal to the description. It was a terrible sight. It was a terrible suffering and mortification to thousands who were caught in the dilemma.

At dark last night there were hundreds yet remaining on the ground. The omnibus horses were all worked down, and drivers opposed to returning, so that many were compelled either to remain on the grounds or walk to the city.

On Wednesday night, we learn, there were at least two hundred who were thus left. Last night there must have been a thousand. Happy those, yesterday, who had carriages of their own—happy those who left the ground early—happy she who wore a cheap bonnet or a cheap dress, or no flounces, or moderate hoops—happy, thrice happy, she with a pretty ankle and dark stockings—miserable, very miserable, all, and every one else.—St. Louis Democrat, Sept. 11.

Escape of Convicts from the Pennsylvania Penitentiary—A Well Laid Plan.

On Sunday morning, two prisoners confined in the Western Penitentiary, were taken from their cells, at 4½ o'clock, and placed in the engine house, for the purpose of letting off steam into the cook-house for cooking breakfast—These prisoners, Daniel Kingsbury and Thomas Burns, had been employed in the engine-house for several months, making repairs to the engine. Kingsbury is a very good machinist, and Burns being a moulder by trade, did the rough work about the engine room. They had worked faithfully all the time, and by employing them in that capacity, the Warden had saved several hundred dollars to the State, which would have otherwise been necessarily expended in making the repairs. The keepers never had cause to suspect that the men contemplated making an escape, and hence the surprise of the watchman may be imagined when, upon entering the engine house, after serving breakfast to the prisoners inside, he discovered that Kingsbury and Burns had scaled the wall, and made good their escape. A ladder had been constructed from pieces of inch boards put together by bolts and screws, and provided with the necessary rounds. They had plenty of tools to work with, and had joined the boards by stealing a minute now and then, when the eyes of the keeper were not upon them.

The ladder, which required to be about 20 feet long, to reach the top of the wall, had been carefully concealed under the large boiler, which is not used in the Summer season. Having got the ladder completed, they only waited an opportunity to use it. They had also made preparations for letting themselves down upon the West Common by means of an engine-belt. All things being thus prepared, while the keeper was serving the breakfast, and in the stillness of the Sabbath morning, they put their well-laid plan into successful operation. It is but five minutes' walk from the prison to the woods back of Allegheny, and it seems that the fugitives took that direction. When they were missed, the police of Pittsburgh and Allegheny were put upon the search, but little or no information was obtained concerning them. Two men answering their description were seen near Mount Union Cemetery toward the north. Colonel JAMES GRAY, while coming into the city, reported seeing two men near the first toll-gate on the New Brighton plank road, several miles from the city. They answered the description of the prisoners in regard to size and general appearance, and it would seem that they took that direction. They would hide in the woods, however, at the first convenient point, and then pursue their journey under the cover of night.

AN INNOCENT MAN HANGED.—Our readers will remember the circumstance of the condemnation and hanging of James P. Donnelly at Freehold, N. J., in January last, for the murder of Albert Moses, bar-keeper of the Sea-View House, Neversink, N. J.; and also that a number of his friends in this city, who believed him to be innocent of the crime, sent a petition to the Governor of New Jersey for a pardon or commutation of his sentence. We learn from the Utica Telegraph that a despatch has been received by the editor of that paper, announcing the death of Smith, who was the proprietor of the Sea-View when the murder of Moses was committed, and the principal witness for the prosecution on Donnelly's trial for the murder of Moses. The despatch states that Smith on his death bed confessed that he was the murderer of Moses, and that Donnelly was entirely innocent of the crime.—Buffalo Courier.

LARGE RECEIPTS OF CATTLE AND FALL IN PRICES.—Our cattle report shows the largest arrivals of live stock ever known in this market. Over 5800 head have been yarded this week, causing a further decline in beeves of nearly one cent per lb. The average price was only 7 cents per lb. Amongst the arrivals were several lots injured by the recent collision on the Hudson River Railroad.—N. Y. Post Sept. 8.

Washburne Renominated.

On Wednesday of last week, our present member of Congress, Hon. C. C. Washburne, having received a very large majority of the votes on informal ballot at the Prairie du Chien Convention, was declared unanimously nominated as the Republican nominee for Congress from this district at the approaching election. We raise his name therefore at the head of our columns with more than good will—with pride. If ever a candidate for re-nomination deserved well of his constituents, that candidate is C. C. Washburn. From the first day of his term until now, his action has been thoroughly Republican, and mindful of the needs of his District; such at least, is the testimony of Sauk County, not from observation only, but from experience. The "three Washburne Brothers" are preferred by the Republicans of their respective districts, and we hazard nothing in saying that they will be preferred at the ballot-box by a majority of the electors. Make way for the faithful Trio!—Baraboo Republic, Sept. 9.

BANKS IN MINNESOTA.—Desiring to inform our readers in regard to the prospect of an early organization of Banks in Minnesota, more definitely than we were enabled to do with the knowledge in our possession, we wrote, on Friday last, to our State Auditor, and have the satisfaction, this evening, of presenting following letter:

STATE OF MINNESOTA, Auditor's Office,
St. PAUL Sept 4th, 1858.

W. A. CROFFUT, Esq., Sir:—Your favor of yesterday is received, and in reply I will state:

There have been twelve propositions for the establishment of Banks, received at this office, only six of which have filed their certificate of organization to this date; they will probably go into operation between this and the first of November next. They are as follows:

State Bank of Minnesota, Austin, Mower Co.
Bank of Faribault, Faribault, Rice Co.
Bank of Northfield, Northfield, Rice Co.
Bank of St. Paul, St. Paul, Ramsey " Exchange Bank, Glencoe, McLeod "
Farmer's Bank, Garden City, Blue Earth Co.

Respectfully Yours,
W. F. DUNBAR, Auditor.

A LARGE BEAR KILLED.—E. Cooper and W. Davis killed a large male bear on Monday last, near the dwelling of Rufus Godfrey, in the town of Grafton. The carcass was brought to town and on exhibition for an hour or so, creating quite an excitement among great and small folks. The weight of the flesh after being dressed was a little over 300 pounds. The animal has been feasting about the neighborhood on lambs, young pork and calves, for some time, and there seems to be a general rejoicing among his two-legged enemies, now that he is fairly subdued and ready for their pallates. Bear meat is delicious, we are told; but how the deuce can we appreciate it without a mouthful? Do you take neighbors?

P. S.—Since the above was written, Mr. Rufus Godfrey informs us that on Wednesday evening, he saw a large female bear and two cubs, probably the family of the aforementioned old quadruped, prowling about his premises near where the male was shot.

This is something new, to have bears in our neighborhood, and their advent should be heralded by something more forcible than a newspaper notice. What say all hands (we mean you) to a real old-fashioned bear-hunt? Now is a grand opening for fun, and let's "go in," if we do get squeezed.—Ozaukee Advertiser, 11th.

The New Government Building.

The new Government building on Wisconsin Street, designed for the use of our City Postmaster, U. S. District Judge, Collector and other Federal Office-holders, is rapidly approaching completion, and will be all ready for use before the New Year. Its exterior is very beautiful; the material (Athens marble) being especially well suited to a public building. The facade is correct in proportion and pleasing to the eye; and the cornice and chimneys are perfect. The interior of the building is admirably arranged.—In the basement, are the furnaces for heating the building, the compartments for fuel, the wash-rooms and water-closets, and a large packing room for the Post-office. The whole of the first floor, 106 feet by 56, is appropriated to the Post-office. There are several public entrances from Milwaukee and Wisconsin streets, the former leading directly to the Ladies' Delivery. A fine, wide hall runs round three sides of the heavy iron frame-work, within which the Post-office business is carried on. Letter-boxes and drawers, of different sizes, are fixed in this frame-work, and all the modern conveniencies have been introduced. It is unquestionably, the best arranged and most convenient Post-office we know of in the Country. Two very handsome and substantial iron stair-cases, at either end of the building on the inside, lead from the first, to the third story, while a central stair-case, connecting with the Postmaster's room in the second story, leads down into the P. O. on the first floor and thence into the basement.

In the second story, on either side of a wide and lofty hall, are arranged the offices of the Post Master, Collector, U. S. Attorney and Clerk of the U. S. Court. They are all of good size, well lighted and handsomely finished off. In the third story is the spacious U. S. Court Room, 56 feet square, and 18 feet in the clear, with Jury rooms on one side, and a library and private office for the Judge, on the other. A trussed roof of corrugated iron, covers the whole building. It is the first of the kind put up in the North-West and seems to be faultless.

The whole edifice is fire-proof, and has been built in the most substantial and workmanlike manner; and with strict attention to the minutest details. It is a model in its way and may be profitably studied by architects and builders. Since the death of the original contractor, Col JONES, last winter, the work has been diligently carried on by his former partner, MR. N OBSSEN, of Rochester, N. Y. From first to last it has been under the faithful and competent supervision of our fellow-citizen, Col. HENRY W. GUNNISON, and the edifice, as it stands, is not less creditable to the skill of the architect who planned, and of the contractor who built it than to the unwearying vigilance, sound judgment, and practical ability of the superintendent who has had it in charge.

The Bangor Suicide.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 8.

The man who committed suicide at the Franklin House in this city, yesterday, was Martin B. Coombs, a lawyer of Milwaukee, as has been ascertained from his papers. He died at 11 o'clock last night.

The above brief record, in the New York papers of Thursday morning "points the moral" of a sad story of talents misapplied, opportunities neglected, and a life of early and bright promises clouded by sin and sorrow, and closed by self-murder.

Shipments from Milwaukee.

The amount of wheat and flour shipped from Milwaukee up to Saturday night, it will be seen by our Commercial Review, is upwards of three and a half million bushels, by reducing flour to wheat. By comparison with the shipments up to the corresponding date last year, we have the following statement:

Year	Wheat.	Flour.
1857,........	1,505,921	104,860
1858,........	2,704,092	171,544
Increase,	1,198,171	66,684

Which shows an aggregate in favor of this season of 1,552,341 bushels of wheat. The whole amount of other grain shipped is 602,857 bushels, to which if we add the aggregate of wheat, it will be seen that the total amount of grain shipped from Milwaukee thus far this season is four millions one hundred and eighty two thousand, and ninety-nine bushels.

INSURANCE.—We would call attention to the advertisement of Mr. CARY, which appears in this morning's paper. There are no better companies than those represented by Mr. CARY.—We would call particular attention to the following extract from the "Money Article," in the New York Independent of July 15th. Mr. CARY is authorized to pay the interest on the scrip of 1857, and has in his hands the scrip for 1858 ready for those entitled to it.

CONTINENTAL FIRE INSURANCE.—We refer to the advertisement of this Company announcing a dividend of fifty per cent to its policy-holders on the earned premiums of the year ending July 1, 1858, and a half-yearly dividend of 6 per cent on its capital to stockholders. The large dividend of 50 per cent to its customers, following the first dividend of 33⅓ per cent on the premiums of the year previous, proves the entire success of what was first only an experiment. The company sharing thus liberally their profits with their customers, show the large surplus of over $250,000. A dividend of 6 per cent is also declared on the scrip of 1857. The capital of the Company is $500,000, yielding the stockholders 12 per cent per annum—a handsome dividend, which is likely to increase under the powerful stimulus to insurers to take policies in this company, afforded by the large returns made to them. It is now two years since the principle was adopted of admitting the policy holders to participate in the profits of the business. The first year's trial was successful, but it was feared by some that such a principle could not be continued, but lo! the second year's experience establishes it beyond all dispute.

The result of the past two years insures prosperity to the Company for the future, as the best descriptions of risks will naturally be attracted to it, from the participation in such large and increasing profits.

The principle is in fact that of mutual insurance in the only practical and efficient form—the large capital binding all interests together in providing ready means.

The assured are entitled to three-fourths of the net profits, and the stockholders to one-fourth. The scrip, however, cannot be redeemed until the funds shall exceed $500,000, when all in excess of that amount shall be so applied. This will give the assured the additional security of $500,000, in addition to the ample capital of $500,000 already subscribed. Already has the fund accumulated to upwards of $250,000, and will soon reach the sum at which it is to be stationary, as all in excess is to be applied to the redemption of the scrip which bears the annual interest of 6 per cent.

This Company is truly a model Company for fire insurance, both as to the principles on which it is formed and the skill and ability with which it is managed.

POLICE COURT SATURDAY.—Bridget Yenick, intoxicated and disorderly, was fined $3 and costs.

Gustavus Youngless, drunk, fined $1. This man, by some accident in his younger days, lost both of his feet from the in-step down. He said he was not drunk, but from the peculiar shape of his feet, having to walk upon his heels, he fell into a mud hole and was unable to get out. He had a bottle of whiskey in his pocket, which in itself was pretty clear evidence that something more than his physical infirmities was the cause of his getting into the mud hole.

A woman named Sidien was brought up on a charge of having deserted her lord, and taken up with an an amateur Frenchman and lived with him as her husband. The Frenchman was also arrested, and both parties sent to Jail for future examination.

SABBATH SCHOOL PIC-NIC.—The scholars of the St. Paul Church Sabbath School had a pic-nic on Saturday, up near the North Point Light-house, on the banks of the Lake. They were carried thither, and back, in omnibuses and carriages, and the American Cornet Band accompanied them, playing nearly all the way out. The Band was conveyed in an open chariot drawn by four cream colored horses, which, followed by the other carriages and buggies, made a long procession. The children were accompanied by many of their friends and parents, and the company was a large one. The day was a delightful one, and the place where the pic-nic was held, is one of the most charming spots within a day's drive of the city. The hill inclines gradually down to the Lake, and there are beautiful walks along its side for some distance, overhung with fine shade trees. The pic-nicians must have had a happy time of it.

DETROIT AND MILWAUKEE RAILWAY—CHANGE OF TIME.—The steamers Cleveland and Arctic will leave this city to day and after at 12:15 P. M. & 8 P. M., instead of one o'clock and half after eight as heretofore, for Grand Haven, in order to make sure connections with the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway, without either delay to the trains or passengers. The trains await the arrival of the boats, so that in case of the boats' being a little behind time, there is no possibility of being detained. This route is fast becoming a favorite one, and it will be better appreciated, no doubt, when it becomes generally known that in going to any point East by it, both time and money are saved.

A GREAT NUISANCE.—Complaint is justly made of the neglect of the police in allowing carters to collect with their horses and drays, on East Water street, in front of LUDINGTON's block. They make this part of the street their stand; and from half a dozen to a dozen of them are usually there at a time, completely blocking up the West side of the street, and preventing people who may have business to do in that vicinity, from hitching their horses, often for the distance of half the block. There are stands provided by law for the draymen, and there is no excuse for their making a stand of so public a thoroughfare as East Water street.

BEHIND THE TIMES.—The New Orleans Delta comes to us daily, as it has for years, directed to the "Sentinel, Milwaukee, Wisconsin Territory."

It is something more than ten years, Mr. Delta, since Wisconsin united her destinies with the sisterhood of the Republic, and she is now, by the blessing of Providence, and the enterprise of her citizens, one of the most glorious free states in the Union.

LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE R. R.—CHANGE OF TIME.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be perceived that the time of departure of the afternoon train on the above road has been changed to 2:55 o'clock.—The evening train from the West will hereafter arrive at 7:35 o'clock, connecting with all routes for the East and South.

ANOTHER COMET.—A splendid comet with a long and luminous tail, was visible in the North-west a little above the horizon, on Saturday evening. It was quite visible for some time, and was seen by many of our citizens.

OYSTERS.—Messrs. DE DAMOS & RAYMOND have our thanks for a can of the nicest and freshest oysters we have tasted this season.—Their depot is No. 16 Wisconsin street.

THE JUNEAU GUARDS' PARTY.—Decidedly the best representation of military that we have ever seen at a party, attended the Soiree of the JUNEAU GUARDS on Friday night. All the companies in the city, except the German companies, were well represented, and nearly all the military guests were in uniform. The Juneau Guards, in their new uniform, were much admired. They went through the military exercises in a manner that would have been creditable to an older company.

Capt. STARR has good reason to feel abundantly rewarded for the labor it has cost him to perfect the company, in the success which has attended his efforts. The new uniform is quite a neat one, and our citizens will have an opportunity to see it to-morrow, and judge for themselves, when the company will be out on their first parade. The party on Friday night, was an extremely pleasant one, and all who attended fully enjoyed themselves.

LATEST NEWS!

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH

Terrible R. R. Accident.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.

Midnight.—A terrible accident occurred here to-night on the Steubenville & Indiana R. R.—A passenger train went through the bridge near Steubenville, and a great many were killed.

It is impossible to learn the particulars to-night. A train had been despatched to the scene of the disaster, to render all possible assistance.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 11.

The Express train going West yesterday evening, on the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad, met with a serious accident thirteen miles West of this place. In crossing a bridge, the Express car and rear engine jumped off the track and knocked out some of the timber, which caused the bridge to suddenly give way.

The baggage car and front passenger car went down with the bridge some ten or fifteen feet, while the rear end of the hind car remained on the abutment. The first car was almost completely broken up, and the seats nearly all broken from their fastenings in the rear car. They following are the persons injured,

J. Mooney, conductor, head severely cut; Byron Roach, of Louisville, both legs broken; E. J. Cornell, baggage master, wrist sprained and badly bruised; Rev. Mr. Watson, of Amsterdam, ankle sprained; James Jacobs, of Maysville, Ky., slightly bruised; A. Anderson, of Harrison Co., slightly injured; D. C. Gill of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Meredith of Xenia, do; Mrs. Lyon of Elizabethtown, N. J.; Dr. Allen of Belleville, Arkansas; Rev. S. J. Humphrey and lady, of Newark, Ohio, and many others who were severely bruised, and others slightly injured.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.

We have Porto Cabello advices to Aug. 27th. Gen. Monagas and family are to have passports out of the Republic of Venezuela.

The papers give the name of the house suspended in this city yesterday, as Siffen & Ironsides.

We learn from a private source from Liverpool, that the negotiation of the bonds of the Atlantic and Great Western railway of Ohio, are completed by the President, Gen. Ward, through the agency of John McHenry.

The Mobile and Ohio railroad have also brought their negotiations to a successful issue.

The steamships North Star and New York left to-day—the former for Southampton and Havre with 114 passengers, and $193,000 in specie; the latter for Breman with a good compliment of passengers.

The Perry Celebration at Put-in Bay.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 11.

Eight steamers and one schooner, loaded with passengers, from lake ports, numbering six thousand persons, celebrated Perry's victory, at Put-in Bay, yesterday. The U. S. steamer Michigan was present. A prayer was made by Rev. Mr. Duffield, of Philadelphia.

Speeches were made by Dr. Parsons, of Providence, R. I., Sargen, of Perry's flag ship, Capt Champlin, of the Scorpion, Mayors Starkweather, of Cleveland, Cook, of Sandusky, Mason, of Toledo, and Wilkins, of Detroit.

Gov. Chase was President of the day. J. R. Giddings and Senator Wade were present.

A monumental Association was formed, Lewis Cass, President.

Another R. R. Accident.

BOSTON, Sept. 11.

The 2:30 P. M. train for Fall River, ran into a freight train yesterday, near North Braintree, slightly injuring James Simmons, Esq., Benjamin Gleason, Pay Master, Charles F. Lathrop, of Easton, passenger, and Thomas E. Belcher, foreman. Three freight cars were badly smashed, a number of cattle were badly wounded, and several hogsheads of whale oil were stove in. The loss is about $10,000.

The Atlantic Cable will Work.

TRINITY BAY, Sept. 10.

Mr. De Santy, the electrician in charge of the Atlantic Telegraph at this place, declines to make any statement relative to the cable for publication, beyond the assurance to the agent of the Associated Press, that positively there are only temporary difficulties to overcome, of an electrical nature, and that there was no reason whatever for the rumor that the cable was a failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.

Nothing definite has yet transpired respecting the action of the Railroad Presidents. The agreement of the 5th of July has been gone over, and mostly agreed to. The main point of difference is relative to the rates of all rail and water carriage, which has been settled to have separate rates, where water forms part of the route. A recess has been taken to allow the freight agents time to agree about rates. If they agree, and the rates are approved by the Presidents, the main difficulty will be overcome. The final result will not be arrived at before midnight, if then. The prospects are good for a satisfactory adjustment, and return to fair rates.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.

A young woman named Miss Henry, was murdered to-day at eleven A. M., by Thos. Stetson. She refused to speak with him when intoxicated, for which he drew a pistol and shot her. He has not yet been arrested.

BUFFALO, Sept. 11.

Cyrus W. Field arrived at the Clifton House, Niagara Falls, at 3 o'clock this P. M. He leaves for Toronto Tuesday, the 14th inst., en route to Montreal and Quebec.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 11.

A young man named Aaron Kneebel, of Brooklyn, shot himself last evening, while in a sail boat, on Oneida Lake. He was living this morning, but will not long survive.

Beriah "in Bonds."

The News of Saturday contains an elaborate communication from BERIAH BROWN, setting forth how he came by $52,000 of La Crosse Bonds, and making out, to his own satisfaction at least, that while others, members and outsiders, may have been grossly "corrupt" at the Land Grant session of 1856, he himself and his associates were not only pure, but above suspicion. Mr. BROWN commences by explaining his connection with the St. Croix and Superior R. R. Company, and reciting his services as an acting Director of the road, He next recounts his doings at the Land Land Grant session of 1856, as follows:

> In company with other of my associates, I visited the legislature of what is commonly known as "the land grant session," with the single object, of obtaining from that body, a recognition of the rights of our company. Dissatisfied and hopeless of success with the legislature, I left Madison before the project of giving the entire grant to the La Crosse company had been publicly stated, and did not return there again, or have any communication with persons there, during the balance of the session. I did not, while at Madison, or at any time, approach, directly or indirectly, any member of the legislature, or other person, with corrupt, or corrupting propositions.

Having thus repelled the charge of "corruption" as to himself, Mr. BROWN turns round and makes the same charge, by implication, against his opponent, Judge POTTER. It is needless to say that the charge is transparently false. There was no man in the Legislature of 1856, who can show a clearer record, or purer hands than JOHN F. POTTER. No stain, or suspicion of corruption, attaches to him.

Mr. BROWN next gives an account of the arrangement by which the La Crosse Company, under threat of a law suit, agreed to pay one million of dollars in bonds to the St. Croix and Superior Company, for rights and franchises, which would have been enormously dear at one-fourth of that sum. Mr. BROWN proceeds:

> By an equitable distribution, $52,000 of those bonds, as has been so often stated, fell to my share. I could not to-day realize from these bonds the amount of money I had actually paid to the St. Croix Company; and myself, as well as many others, have been ruined, pecuniarily, by the transaction. These are all of the facts in the case, so far as I am concerned, and if they prove corruption on my part, it is a kind of corruption which will go unrepented of, for it has left no consciousness of guilt upon my mind, but the disagreeable feeling of a victim of misplaced confidence.

That "the bonds" did not "realize" the amount anticipated, and that many of the recipients were left in the lurch by the rapid depreciation of La Crosse securities, is undoubtedly true; but it is equally true as to those who received the "corruption bonds" proper, and does not in the least effect the question at issue.

Mr. BROWN protests that his conscience is clear as to this charge of "corruption." Very likely. And so, no doubt, the great majority of those whose names figure in the Investigating Committee's Report, can safely make the same protestation. There were few of them, indeed, who did not labor and vote for the Land Grant bill from good motives and honest convictions.—But the subsequent receipt of gratuities from the La Crosse Company has subjected one and all alike to the suspicion of "corruption." Mr. BROWN stands in precisely the same category.—There was just as much "corruption" in the distribution of that million of bonds among the corporators of the St. Croix Rail Road Co., as in the arrangement with the friends of the North East Land Grant, or the parcelling out of $885,000 in bonds among the members of the Legislature. They were all part and parcel of the same general plan, and the "influence" of the St. Croix corporators was just as notoriously "purchased" by the bargain with them, as was the "vote" of any member of either House by the present of bonds. If, therefore, the Democratic Press and Party have been honest in their clamors, for the past year, against ex Governor BASHFORD for accepting $5,000 in bonds from the La Crosse Company, they must equally repudiate BERIAH BROWN who received, as his share of the spoil, $52,000 in bonds. There is nothing to show that the one was a whit more "corrupt" than the other.

Lastly, BERIAH denies to the charge that he is a favorite of the "KILBOURN-BARSTOW party." He "knows no such party." Innocent and inexperienced youth! Who would have thought it? Not know BARSTOW and KILBOURN? Why, not to know them, argues himself unknown. Surely BERIAH cannot so soon have forgotten his old friends, or seek thus early to kick down the ladder by which he has attained the giddy height of a Congressional nomination. We are charitable enough to believe that this is only a bit of pleasantry, or a neat little device to pull the wool over the eyes of the good people.

The Quaker Dodge.

The "Sentinel" announces that it "is entirely satisfied with the present occupant of the post office," and in the same article we find the following grave accusation alleged against the entire corps of Federal office-holders, in this city—"Even our Federal office holders, who wear the livery and accept the wages of the administration, are supporting Douglas candidates for Congress!"—News of Saturday.

The News, instead of disputing, copies and endorses the above statement, and with a spice of malice, immediately adds:

> We shall not be surprised to learn, almost any day, Norman has succeeded Col. Steever as postmaster of the city.

"The wish" is undoubtedly "father to that thought." Like the fox that lost his tail, the News is anxious to see the turning out fashion spread.

EVEN SO.—The Wisconsin, discoursing about the Congressional nominations in this State, says:

> It is a noteworthy fact, that all the Democratic Congressional nominees in this State are warm partizans of Senator Douglas. The Buchanan party in this State is certainly a very feeble one, or they would have nominated at least one candidate for Congress.

The Douglas men not only refused to let the Buchaniers have a candidate, but they would not even permit a formal resolution of compliment to the Administration! BUCHANAN & Co. were "cut dead" in all three Districts.

A Plea for Judge Dunn.

The News of Saturday admits all that the Sentinel alleged, in regard to Judge DUNN. The News concedes, as the Sentinel stated, that Judge DUNN belongs to the Southern School of Democracy, and the News volunteers a puff of said School. The News further concedes that Judge DUNN believes in the Fugitive Slave Act, sustains the Dred Scott decision, and approves of the Kansas-Nebraska Iniquity. Upon all these points, therefore, which are so many living issues in the pending canvass, the position of Judge DUNN is perfectly clear and unquestioned. On all of them he occupies distinctly opposite ground to that maintained by his opponent, Mr. WASHBURNE, and the Republicans of Wisconsin. The People of the Second District, therefore, have a plain case before them. On the one hand is Judge DUNN, the champion of the Fugitive Slave Act, the Dred Scott decision and the Nebraska Villainy. On the other, stands C. C. WASHBURN, the zealous, unflinching and uncompromising opponent of all these abominations. Which of the two will the electors of the Second District have for their Representative?

On one point only, raised by the Sentinel, does the News enter a plea in abatement in behalf of Judge DUNN. We refer to his well known crusade in the Constitutional Convention, against the rights and privileges of foreign born-electors. The News, of course, does not deny that Judge DUNN led on the attack, and made the motion to deprive foreigners of the right of suffrage, which they had previously enjoyed. But it thus seeks to apologize for the act:

> It is possible that Judge DUNN did hold, at one time, that it would be good policy to restrict the privilege of voting to naturalized and native born citizens, but we know that he acquiesces in the present policy, which allows foreign born residents of our state to vote after residing in the state one year, and declaring their intentions to become citizens.

The "one time" when Judge DUNN held this doctrine was precisely the time when, if a majority of the Convention had been of his way of thinking, our foreign-born electors would have been deprived of rights which they enjoyed under the Territorial Act. That he "acquiesces" in the law, as it stands, without altering his own opinions, is very possible, for the Judge is a shrewd enough politician to know that a renewal of his attempt to proscribe electors of foreign birth would be a very Quixotic undertaking. But his opinions and votes on this question are matter of record, and by these he is to be judged. The fact of his "acquiescence" in a policy which he combated when the opportunity offered, rests only on the very doubtful authority of the News. Judge DUNN will need rather a better certificate of character before he can clear his skirts from the taint of Know-Nothingism.

The News Conquering its Prejudices.

One by one, under the pressure of political necessity, the News is learning to "conquer its prejudices." It had given everybody to suppose that it was zealous for BUCHANAN and Lecompton; but the loss of the City Post Office, has taught it to oppose the one and denounce the other. For a year past it has been daily and severely exercised about the "Bribery and Corruption" of the Land Grant Session of 1856, yet it has already become reconciled to the nomination of a $52,000 Candidate by a Convention which shared among them $885,000 in "corruption bonds." At every election, for the last six years, it has warned Adopted Citizens to have nothing to do with men or parties, who had ever shown any disposition to curtail their rights. And now it is appealing to those same citizens to vote for a Candidate who, in the State Constitutional Convention, headed the attempt to deprive foreign-born electors of the right to vote.

When Judge DOOLITTLE was elected to the U. S. Senate by the "Black Republican Legislature" of 1856, the wrath and indignation of the News knew no bounds. It pronounced pathetic funeral discourses over our violated constitution. It put on sackcloth and ashes and mourned continually over our defunct fundamental law.—It denounced before High Heaven the wicked perpetrators of the foul deed, and appealed to the Democratic majority in the U. S. Senate to right the flagrant wrong. Notwithstanding the public experience in the easy virtue and weather-cock principles of the News, it was impossible to doubt, in view of its many protestations, its indignant philippics, its diurnal lamentations, that it was sincere for once and would stick to what it said.

But alas! for the vanity of all human expectations! No sooner is Judge LARRABEE—a Judge now on the Bench—a Judge whose term of office has not yet expired—no sooner is he nominated for Congress; than presto! change! round goes the News, and up comes the constitution as sound as ever and without a scar.—Hear how "gracefully" the News conquers this last prejudice:

> We plead guilty to the charge of having denounced the Republicans for electing Doolittle in violation of what we conceived to be a plain and salutary provision of the constitution; but the decision of our State authorities and of Congress, completely annuls that provision, and we bow in respectful deference to that decision.—The Republicans are estopped by their own acts from raising this objection while we have been overruled by higher authority, and submit gracefully to a decision which it would be folly to attempt to resist. The action of our State and of Congress renders that clause entirely nugatory. Practically it is the same as though it never had been inserted in the Constitution.

"It is instructive to remark" that as it was never known that Judge DUNN "acquiesced" in the right of foreign born citizens to vote, until his recent nomination for Congress; so the News' "respectful deference" to the precedent set by the Republicans in the election of Judge DOOLITTLE, was never made public till subsequent to the nomination of Judge LARRABEE. After this last exhibition, it would be folly to deny that the News can beat any juggler of the day in feats of legislation.

A Roland for an Oliver.

Sometime since, the Milwaukee News—the last paper that should have said anything about "bonds"—contained the following paragraph:

> The "Sentinel" denies that it has assailed Messrs. Kilbourn, Jenkins and Hadley, on account of their connection with the La Crosse company in 1856, when the Land Grant was secured by the purchase of a black republican governor, at $50,000, in bonds.

Whereupon the Sentinel rejoins that, "if it be true, as the News alleges, that the Land Grant was secured 'by the purchase of a black republican governor, at $50,000 in bonds,' then it is equally true that there were 'purchased' at the same time and for the same purpose, a democratic lieutenant governor at $40,000 in bonds; one democratic comptroller at $10,000 in bonds; one democratic speaker at $10,000 in bonds; two democratic clerks at $15,000 in bonds; nine democratic senators at $135,000 in bonds, and forty democratic assemblymen at $250,000 in bonds. Grand total of "bonds" paid for FIFTY-FOUR democratic State officers and legislators, $469,000, in bonds."

This shot hits the News and its backers between wind and water. The small amount paid, for a republican governor looks still more insignificant when placed alongside the magnificent total figured above.—Whitewater Register.

The News does not at all fancy the retort which its paragraph provoked. After clamoring for the past year about the "bribery and corruption" of the "Black Republican Governor and Legislature of 1856," it must be an awkward circumstance for the News to find that where one "Black Republican" State officer was "purchased" by La Crosse bonds, three Democratic State officers were bought up by the same means; that while some twenty "Republican" Legislators were "propitiated" to the amount of about $70,000, fifty Democratic Senators and Representatives pocketed $385,000; and that the little arrangements for "purchasing" all these parties were made exclusively by "Democrats."

A FLATTERING PROSPECT.—The N. Y. Herald, a quasi democratic organ, thinks that the Democratic party is going to ruin. It says that "neither sympathy for Douglas, nor hostility to Douglas, nor a little movement here for Gov. WISE, nor another there for SLIDELL and BRIGHT, nor anything of the sort, will avail to unite the distracted, dismantled disjointed and divided Democracy."

A Pronunciamento from Head Quarters—The Orthodox Democratic Creed about Squatter Sovereignty and the Dred Scott Decision.

That eminent Democratic practitioner, (it would not be civil to say quack) Dr. S. A. DOUGLAS, of Illinois, having recently put forth sundry political prescriptions, labelled genuine, which are killing off scores of the "National Democracy," the Doctors of that school in Washington, the head-quarters of the medico-politico science, have deemed it necessary to prepare and put forth a counterblast, for the information, at once, and the protection of the faithful. Here it is from the Washington Union of the 4th inst., the orthodox Administration organ:

> In the Dred Scott case it was decided by the Supreme Court that the Constitution of the United States recognized African Slavery as a legal institution in a large proportion of the States of the Union; and that the right of citizens of the slaveholding States to carry slaves into the common Territories was a Constitutional right.—It decided, consequently, that Congress, which was but a trustee for the common benefit of all the States, had no power to abolish or prohibit slavery in a Territory; and that the clause of the Missouri Compromise law prohibiting the institution in the common territories of States North of a prescribed line, was unconstitutional, null, and void. It also decided, as a corollary principle, that what Congress could not itself do in the common territories, no provisional government or agency it might establish in them could do; and that as an act of Congress prohibiting slavery in any part of the common territory was unconstitutional, a fortiori would the act of a territorial legislature, a mere agent, be also unconstitutional, null and void. There was another principle laid down in the decision —namely, that the African negro, though free, was not a citizen of the United States under the Federal Constitution, or endowed with equal rights with the white man, or entitled to sue and be sued in the federal courts, or to carry into one State of the Union the same rights which may have been conferred upon him in another.
> These are the leading principles decided and established as the law of the land by the Supreme Court in this decision; and we think there are few who will not agree that, practically the most important part of the decision is that which denies to the legislatures or provisional government of the territories, while in the territorial condition, the right of prohibiting slavery within their borders. The decision was made with reference to the common rights and interests of the citizens of all the States of the Union, in territories acquired by the common treasure and blood. It is a decision founded not more upon the legal effect of the Constitution in its letter and spirit, than upon the broad equities which belong to the association of equal States having common interests, a common cause, and making common contributions for the general extension and aggrandizement.
> But how useless would it be in practice to deny the power of a majority of Congress to prohibit the entrance of slavery into a Territory if a territorial legislature, elected by, perchance, a hundred or a thousand squatters precipitated into its borders by abolition aid societies from the free States, under the auspices of such men as Thayer, Beecher, and Silliman, could prohibit its entrance there? We will not, however, go over the objections to the exploded doctrine of squatter sovereignty, abominable enough before the Dred Scott decision, but incendiary now.
> Judge Douglas, in the early part of his present canvass in Illinois, took great pains to tickle the ears of the South with encomiums upon the Dred Scott decision; but we early observed the significant circumstance that those encomiums were confined to that branch of the decision which denied the equality of the negro with the white man under the federal constitution. This branch of the decision is more or less popular, we would fain hope, among all classes of white people, except the infatuated old line abolitionists; and so far from risking a sacrifice of popularity, his bold championship of this branch of the decision appealed with powerful effect to the better instincts of the white men whom he addressed.
> Judge Douglas was very staunch upon that branch of the decision in which the slaveholding States felt little interest; for what does it matter to them whether the negro be admitted or not to an equality with the white man by the people of the free States—a mere matter of taste? He was very staunch upon that branch of the Dred Scott decision which he was able to turn to advantage, in his canvass for the votes of the white men of Illinois. Let us see how he supported the decision in a matter affecting the real interests of the slaveholding States—upon a point involving great political rights—upon a point upon which the slaveholding States do feel an active solicitude—upon a point in regard to which a staunch support of the decision would cost him more or less popularity in his canvass.
> The doctrine of "popular sovereignty," as laid down by the Democratic party in its whole advocacy of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, and in its promulgation of its platform of principles at Cincinnati, is, that the people of a Territory at the time of framing of a Constitution preparatory to admission as a State into the Union, and not before, have the power to form their domestic institutions in their own way, neither Congress nor any other authority having the power to interfere, then or at any time before, to forestall or control their action. This was the doctrine of the Democratic party before the Dred Scott decision was rendered; and the decision was but a confirmation of the doctrine.

This is the doctrine which the Democracy, North as well as South, are pledged to support. Our readers will at once discover that by the application of the Dred Scott screw, Slavery is forced into all the Territories of the Union, and cannot be excluded therefrom either by Territorial enactment, or Congressional interference.—In other words, the Supreme Court rule, and the Democracy are expected to sustain the ruling, that SLAVERY is National, FREEDOM Sectional. Are the people of Wisconsin content to acquiesce in such a doctrine?

THE JENA JUBILEE.—German papers by the Africa contain reports of the proceedings in Jena on the 15th and 16th of August, the first two days of the celebration of the third centennial anniversary of the University. The town was literally crowded with the alumni of old Jena, and was decked in holiday attire, every house being tastefully decorated with garlands, appropriate devices and emblems, flags and transparencies, while here and there the eye rested upon the names of eminent Germans of the last three centuries—from Luther and Melancthon to Schiller and Goethe, and Luken and Humboldt. At last accounts, Humboldt had not made his appearance, but was remembered in a toast by Boeken of Berlin. Ernst Moritz Arndt was likewise absent.

A PUBLIC DINNER TO DISTINGUISHED FEMALES.—The New York Express says that the project has been started of giving a dinner to Mrs. LE VERT and Mrs. ANN CORA RITCHIE, now in that city. Two hundred tickets are to be issued, one hundred for ladies, and the remainder admitting gentlemen. The price of entrance will be ten dollars, and the proceeds are to be devoted to the Washington enterprise. This is certainly a novelty in this novel age.

OUR MONTHLY STATEMENT.—We this week present our statement of the amount of business done at this station for the month of August past, for which, as usual, we are indebted to Mr. Judd, the agent here, to whom we are under obligations for many similar favors:

Pennsylvania Politics.

WAVERLY, N. Y., Sept 7.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow, has been re-nominated unanimously in the 7th Congressional District, Pennsylvania, for a fifth term in Congress.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.

The friends of Mr. Nebinger, the anti-Lecompton candidate for Congress from the 1st District, met this evening in the Old School House, on Carpenter street, and the assemblage was so great that the floor gave way, falling seven feet. Nobody, fortunately, was seriously injured.

COMPLIMENTARY RETORT.—"I knew Mr. Lincoln in early life; he commenced his life as a grocer."—[Senator Douglas.

Accident on the Hudson River R. R.

Two Men Killed—Forty Cars and Two Engines Destroyed—Great Slaughter of Cattle.

Yesterday morning, at 1½ o'clock, a terrible accident occurred on the Hudson River Railroad, at the Fishkill Station, by which two men were almost instantly killed, and several others badly injured.

It appears that on the previous evening two immense trains freighted with cattle, left Albany for this city. At the time above mentioned the first train reached Fishkill, when the engineer discovered that the axle boxes of one of the cars were almost red hot, and that in consequence it would be dangerous to proceed until the boxes could be cooled. Men were forthwith set to work to cool the boxes.

Within a few seconds after the train had stopped a brakeman was ordered to take the signal of danger, a red light, and run along the track in order to warn the second train, which was rapidly [illegible] at full speed. For greater safety and to preclude, if possible, the occurrence of an accident [illegible] the approaching train, the conductor of the first train ran back some distance, and placed [illegible] torpedoes upon the track (another signal of danger.) In a little time the train came [illegible] on—the brakeman's signal with the red light was answered by the engineer signalizing the brakemen to apply the brakes.—Soon the torpedoes exploded, and another signal was given to apply all force to the brakes. This was done, but owing to the great length of the train and the speed which it was under at the time, the brakes proved of little avail, and a frightful [illegible] was the result.

The first train was standing alongside the machine shop. This train had one engine and numbered thirty-five cars. The second train numbered forty-[illegible] cars, and was drawn by two powerful engines, the "Rochester" and the "Putnam." The engines, the moment they struck the [illegible] of the foremost train, were thrown from the track, and striking a chimney some fifty feet high, connected with the machine shop, completely demolished it.

The cars of the second train were dashed forward, and [illegible] piled one on top of the other [illegible] the second-story windows of the shop. Quite a large number of cattle and hogs were killed, and many others so badly injured that it was an act of humanity to kill them and put an end to their sufferings. Several large bullocks lay on top of the debris, and one ox of mammoth proportions was thrown half way into a second-story window of the shop. Such of the swine as escaped uninjured seemed quite unconcerned about the matter, and extricating themselves from the ruins, were soon afterwards rooting along the road or wallowing in the mire.

SCENE OF THE DISASTER.

The scene of the collision defies description; everything in the shape of locomotives or cars seems to be completely destroyed and torn up in small pieces. Locomotives, cars, cattle, hogs and sheep, are mingled in the greatest confusion. The first train which came down was a train of 35 cars loaded with cattle, &c. It stopped on account of the journal getting heated, with the rear car opposite the Fishkill Landing Machine Shop. At this place there is quite a deep cut, the rocks on each side being 30 or 40 feet in height. The second train which came down had two locomotives and 42 cars loaded with cattle, sheep and hogs. This train, not noticing the signals sent back to warn it, came rushing on at a fearful rate, and dashed into the other train demolishing car after car, and piling them in heaps one on top of the other, killing and crushing the cattle and hogs into an almost undistinguishable mass of locomotives, cars and cattle. At the end of this machine shop there was a chimney [illegible] feet square and 60 feet high.

The locomotives of the last train, on striking [illegible] of the other train, were turned [illegible] and driven up the rocks, entirely destroying this chimney, and bursting through the end of the shop as though it were a corn husk. The locomotives were piled one on top of the other, until they reached nearly to the top of the building; the last car of the train standing on the track was forced up in front of them, and bodies of cattle were driven through into the second story of the shop. Nothing but the large size of this chimney prevented the locomotive from demolishing the entire shop. The mass piled up against the end of the machine shop extends to the second story, and is composed of the remains of the locomotive, pieces of cars which are torn into shreds, mixed with bodies of cattle, sheep and hogs. Several hogs [illegible] under this pile, seemingly quite undisturbed. Cattle and parts of cattle were strewed along the track, and we never witnessed a scene of more complete destruction.—*N. Y. The Fatal Railway Collision near Dudley, England—12 Lives Lost.

The most serious catastrophe that has ever occurred on a railway in the Midland district took place last night on the Oxford, Worcester and Wolverhampton line, between Round Oak and Brettell-lane stations, a few miles beyond Dudley. By it eleven persons were instantaneously killed, another died a few hours afterwards, several more are so severely injured that their recovery is despaired of, others are maimed for life, and a great number were more or less injured. The accident took place under the following circumstances:—

Yesterday there was "a very cheap Sunday School excursion to Worcester." A special train was announced to leave Wolverhampton for Worcester at [illegible], "calling at all stations for the express purpose of conveying the teachers and children of the various schools to Worcester and back." The fare from Wolverhampton and Stourbridge and all intermediate stations to Worcester and back was 1s for adults, and 6d for children; from Hagley to Churchill, Kidderminster, and Worcester, 8d for adults, and 4d for children; and from Droitwich and Fearnal Heath 4d for adults, and 3d for children. This extraordinary low rate of charges naturally attracted a large number of passengers, and by the time the train arrived at its destination it had been augmented to fifty carriages, computed to contain nearly 2,000 passengers. The returned train was announced to leave Worcester at 6 P. M.

Those having charge of the arrangements determined to divide the train, and instead of having one monster train propelled by two engines, to have two trains each drawn by one engine. Accordingly, about 25 minutes after 6 o'clock the first train left Worcester station. It consisted of 29 cars, closely packed with passengers, and was followed in a quarter of an hour by the second train, consisting of 16 carriages. Each train called at all stations, and all went well with the first until its arrival at Round Oak, which took place about 8,[illegible]. There, either just before the train arrived at the station, which is situated on a steep incline, or when it was put in motion to leave the station, 12 or 13 of the last carriages became detached from the former part of the train by the breaking of the couplings of two of the carriages, and rolled down the incline towards Brettell-lane with ever increasing velocity. The guard who occupied the van at the extremity of the train applied his break with all the force of which it was capable, but its power was insufficient to check the retrograde motion of the carriages, which soon attained a very high rate of speed. On arriving at Bug Hole, a little more than half way to Brettell-lane, they dashed into the second excursion train, which, as before stated, was dispatched from Worcester only fifteen minutes after the first, and being a lighter train, naturally gained upon it during the journey.

The driver of the second train perceived the carriages running back upon him down the incline, and [illegible] succeeded in bringing the train to a stand at the time of the collision, thus considerably mitigating the severity of the crash. But as it was the consequences were fearful.—The guard's van and the carriage next to it were split into match-wood, and the second carriage escaped little better. The guard jumped out just before the collision occurred, and escaped without injury; but the effect upon the passengers crowded in the two shattered carriages was dreadful.

The scene that ensued is impossible to describe. Fragments of the crushed and broken carriages, mutilated human forms, some still in death, some writhing in their last agonies, others seriously but not fatally hurt, shrieking with pain and terror, were confounded in a general melee, hardly distinguishable amid the darkness and the dust occasioned by the collision. The terrified passengers who escaped without serious injury ran hither and thither in bewilderment, and knew not what to do. It was soon apparent that the loss of life was lamentably great. Eleven lifeless forms were discovered among the rubbish, in addition to many frightfully mangled and disfigured.

Then follows a long list of the killed and of the wounded, giving a description of the injuries suffered by the victims. The collision resembles in many particulars, the shocking accident which occurred to a Sunday School excursion train on the Northern Pennsylvania road, some months since.

From the London Times, Aug. 27.

The Queen's and President's Messages.

We publish to-day the first fruits of the electric communication which has been established between the New and the Old World. The first message sent was from the Queen of England to the President of the United States; the second, the reply from the other side. There is here far more than a formal interchange of compliments between the heads of two powerful communities. We fully believe that the effect of bringing the United Kingdom and the United States into instantaneous communication with each other will be to render hostilities between the two nations all but impossible for the future. Take as examples the three last instances of difference between our cousins and our Transatlantic cousins. There have been—first, as to the right of visiting vessels with the view of ascertaining their nationality; secondly, the question of the fisheries; and thirdly, that of the enlistments during the Russian War. Now, it is not too much to say that the most fiery politician in the States, who might have been desirous of making a little political capital out of these notable causes of quarrel, would have been fairly checkmated if the English Government had possessed the power of undeceiving the American public before the sparks had been fanned into flame. There ought not between two nations where interests are clearly identical to be any points of difference which honest Ministers on either side could not adjust in a few hours by the help of the Atlantic Telegraph. It is also certain that one of the first results of this electric post will be an enormous growth of the commercial relations between the two countries. Tradesmen are not generally anxious to blow the warehouses and stores of their best customers off the face of the earth.

It is scarcely too much to suppose that if the two great Anglo-Saxon States remain firmly united—fused together, as they now are, by this electric agency—he would be a bold continental statesman who should venture to try conclusions with them in a warlike way. United, we are masters wherever there is salt water enough to float a ship's boat. There can be no stronger guaranty for the peace of the world. We fear, however, that the President of the United States is somewhat sanguine when he expects that other nations will respect our submarine line of communication in case of war. The conclusion is a most desirable one, no doubt, and heartily shall we rejoice if it can be attained, but it is to be feared that the forbearance and philanthrophy of other nations will scarcely extend so far. For the moment it must be remembered that the cable is only extended between two points of the British dominions, although the first line is, of course, but the fruitful parent of many others. A minor, but still an important result, of this new method of instantaneous communication will be that the escape of malefactors from one side to the other will become an impossibility. A person guilty, let us say, of forgery or embezzlement, would be as safe as soon as he put himself on board ship under the new system. Once there, he would be fairly trapped, and find the officer of justice waiting for him in the pilot-boat on the other side. It is with great satisfaction that we lay before our readers this day the message of the Queen of England and of the President of the United States which have been thus exchanged instantaneously under the waters of the Atlantic. Well may Mr. Buchanan write, "This is a triumph more glorious, because far more useful to mankind, than was ever won by conqueror on the field of battle." May the triumph be as lasting as it is glorious, and bring forth fruits in the form of perpetual peace and goodwill between the two great Anglo-Saxon communities!

From Bell's Life in London, Aug. 29.

Mr. Morphy's Doings in England.

Since the arrival of Mr. Morphy, the young American Philador, in England, he has played constantly with all who have dared to present themselves, and his career so far has been one of unmixed triumph. The sceptics who turned up their noses at the very idea of a boy of twenty being a first-rate player, are now muttering in bated tones about "exceptions to the usual rule," and so forth. We candidly own we consider Mr. Morphy a phenomenon, and are delighted to hail in him certainly the finest player since McDonnell and La Bourdonnais. Results in chess speak for themselves; and great talent is neither to be written down nor inferior talent written up, save for a season. Mr. Morphy has favored us with the exact score of all the games he has played since he came to the old country, not thinking it worth while to include a number of games played giving the large odds of rook or knight, all of which he has won. Beginning with Herr Lowenthal—while we write the match is not over; but Morphy has but one more party to win. They have played twelve games, of which Morphy scores eight, draws one, and loses three. With Mr. Barnes, of the St. George's Club, Mr. Morphy has played 26 games, winning ninteen and losing seven. With Mr. Boaden, Morphy played nine games, winning five, losing one and drawing three. Of twelve games contested with Mr. Bird, Morphy gained no less than ten, drawing one and losing one. With Mr. Hampton, the American has played and won two games; and of six played with the veteran, Herr Lowe, the American wins six! With the Rev. Mr. Owen, Morphy played five games, winning four and losing one; and then giving pawn and move for a match of five games, won all five, drew two, and lost none. It was agreed that if Mr. Morphy beat Mr. Owen at pawn and move, he was to play a second match at pawn and two moves, which match we shall, doubtless, therefore, hear of in due course, Morphy being remarkably given to carry out all his undertakings.—He has hardly yet found time to play with the leading members of the London Club, but we anticipate some good battling yet with their most promising player, Mr. George Medley, destined, we believe, to go very far on the chess road to fame. We are glad to say Mr. Morphy is in excellent health and spirits, certainly stouter in form than when he landed on our shores, and much pleased with the kind reception he has met with generally. A few words, now, on the prospect of a match between Morphy and Mr. Staunton, respecting which, note that we strictly aim at fact, not comment. Mr. Morphy has thrice challenged Mr. Staunton, and the receipt of his cartel has been thrice courteously acknowledged. The first challenge was in print, in an American Chess Monthly, from the New Orleans Chess Club, inviting Mr. Staunton to come out and play on his own terms, for any stake up to $5,000 a side. Mr. Staunton's reply indicated a great desire to play Morphy, but a refusal to come so far; and for this he could not be blamed. Morphy crossed the sea, and repeated his challenge, for the second time, viva voce, receiving for an answer, a polite renewal of Mr. Staunton's wish to play, but a desire to have a "few weeks'" preliminary practice, study of openings, and so forth. Mr. Morphy bowed assent, as he does to almost everything, but the few weeks, and a few more, passing without the day being fixed, the initiative here being clearly thrown upon Mr. Staunton, Morphy sent his third challenge, in writing, and received a written reply this week. But, unfortunately, this written reply is merely an echo of the old "delighted to play," and the rest of it; no day or even month fixed for the encounter.

Morphy, perhaps, hardly feels it delicate to send a fourth cartel, but we think his straightway course would be to do so, simply saying, "Will you kindly name the day, or do you decline accepting my challenge?" Mr. Morphy leaves all conditions to Mr. Staunton, and will play for any stake, from £100 to £500 on each side. A gathering of chess players takes place at Birmingham on Tuesday next, at which both Messrs. Morphy and Staunton will be present.—Unless the day and hour for beginning the match are then fixed, the whole is smoke and the chess circle must draw their own conclusions.—Morphy stands, in relation, meanwhile to Staunton, something like our gallant Broke did in the Shannon of Boston, when he sent his well-known cartel to the American captain of the Chesapeake. "Your flag requires a victory such as "you would gain in taking my ship to give it the "position in the eyes of nations you pretend to "take up. I can remain here but eight and-"forty hours longer, wanting as I do provisions "and water. So do me the honor to come out "at once and fight if you mean it." It must always be remembered that Morphy is here merely as a traveler, and therefore cannot wait for an adversary till the days of grace 1860. If Mr. Staunton declines his challenge, Mr. Morphy will probably run over to Paris to play Harwitz, and from thence on to Germany to encounter Anderson.

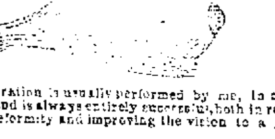
LECTURES ON THE EYE.
STRABISMUS, or Cross Eye, may be defined to be a want of harmony between the two eyes, which exists to such an extent that one of them does not move with the other, but is turned away involuntarily to the other side.
It is an affection so apparent as scarcely to require explanation, and is a most unpleasant defect, particularly to young people, and never fails to impair the sight more or less.
It consists essentially of a contraction of one of the six muscles which fix the ball as represented in the cut.



The operation is usually performed by me, in a few seconds, and is always entirely successful, both in relieving the deformity and improving the vision to a great degree.
Operations for Cataract, artificial pupil, &c., scientifically and successfully performed.
French artificial eyes inserted without operation or pain, having the appearance and all the motions of the natural eye.
All the recent discoveries and improvements in the diagnosis and treatment of ocular and aural diseases, will be recoursed to for the restoration and preservation of the most valuable of the senses, sight and hearing.
Persons from a distance will be provided with boarding houses by making application at the office immediately on arriving in the City.

CITY LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. LOTS. PALMER & CO'S Addition, No. 21. One mile and a half from the Spring Street Bridge.	We have laid off the balance of our original purchase on Spring street into lots, and now offer them on the same terms as heretofore, viz: One each hundred dollars of purchase money five dollars in advance, and three dollars per month thereafter until paid WITHOUT INTEREST. The lots are beautifully situated on high ground in a healthful locality, and embraces some of the finest views about the city. They will bear examination.

The very low price at which they will be sold, together with the terms, commend them to the attention of all classes who desire a home and exemption from rents.—Young men, mechanics and laboring men, and tradesmen of small means have here an opportunity to invest that is within their reach. We have an agent on the property every day, after 2 P. M., to show the lots.

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,
IS one of the best purgative and Liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

☞ One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves CHOLIC, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures CHRONIC DIARRHEA in its worst forms, while SUMMER and BOWEL complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by WORMS in Children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

☞ A few bottles cures DROPSY, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

ALL WHO USE IT ARE GIVING THEIR UNANIMOUS TESTIMONY IN ITS FAVOR.

☞ MIX WATER IN THE MOUTH WITH THE INVIGORATOR, AND SWALLOW BOTH TOGETHER.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of LIVER Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.

WHAT? WHY A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.
Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly on the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:

DR. WOOD:— New York, April 19th, 1858.
Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligation I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color. About the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative, it soon recovered its former hue. I consider your Hair Restorative as a very wonderful invention—quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
I am, dear sir, yours truly,
S. THALBERG.

"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd," WELSH NEWSPAPER OFFICE,
113 Nassau st., April 12, 1858.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color; but to her, as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hair back to brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change in their hair.
CHARLES CARDEW.

New York, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being a most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers, which were almost white, have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It has also relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely.
J. G. KILBY.

PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning grey; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grew out, and turned back to its former color, black. At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOES.
Chicago, Ill., May 1, 1857.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40, per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett,
OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment, in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or comment from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring benefits of my experience and treatment within reach of all, and not to confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethern and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case. Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., &c., will be forwarded to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms for treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient, which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicines, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D.,
No. 620 Broadway, cor. Twelfth st., N. Y.
P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected. sep[illegible]m

Dr. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 12 Wisconsin street.
READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness and in many cases, their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Saturday Evening, Sept. 11, 1858.

In our last review we spoke of the promising indications of a revival in general business, and, as far as Milwaukee is concerned, we are pleased to be able to say our expectations have been more than realized. The Fall trade has reached its meridian, and our merchants are all doing much more business than they expected two months ago. The same desirable change is spoken of as having taken place elsewhere throughout the country. With a fair harvest next year, it is not too much to expect that every trace of the recent commercial revolution will have been obliterated before another autumn dawns upon our State. Produce is now moving freely toward the seaboard, the shipments of wheat from this city amounting to upwards of one hundred and fifty thousand bushels, which is an increase of some seventy odd thousand bushels over last week. Receipts by Railroad are also on the increase, though they show considerable of a falling off during the past few days, owing, in a measure, to a slight re-action in the market.

Foreign advices received since the date of our last review indicate a firmness in the European markets without, however, any important advance in prices. The Russian wheat crop is said to be a partial failure, and it is believed that the exports from that quarter will be comparatively light this season. The intelligence comes from reliable sources, and its truth does not seem to be doubted. If this prove correct the export demand for American produce will be considerably increased. Since last week the New York produce market has been characterized by an unexpected dullness, and prices were generally on the decline. In our own market there has not been any unusual activity, though the amount of business done is considerably larger than the preceding week. Spring wheat has declined about 6c, but winter remains about the same, and there is no change to speak of in other articles. The prices of grain are now somewhat higher than those of last year at the corresponding date, as will be seen by the following comparison:

	Sept. 11, '57.	Sept. 11, '58.
Wheat, spring	75a75	85a95
do winter	80a$1,00	$1,00a$1,15
Oats	25a37½	40a42
Barley	65a85	69a65
Corn	55a60	60a62

At this time last year the markets were declining rapidly and very little produce was coming forward. The shipments of wheat up to the present date this season from this port are upwards of three millions six hundred thousand bushels, which is an increase of about a million and a half bushels over the exports of wheat last year to the same date. This shows a rapid increase in the production of breadstuffs in Wisconsin. We will undoubtedly improve upon this next year.

We append our usual tables, quotations, money article, &c.:–

Wheat.—To-day we quote No. 1 spring at 90a92c, No 2 do 89a87c, extra do 95a98c, red winter $1a1,05, white do $1,05a$1,15. The market has ranged about as follows during the week:

On Monday buyers exhibited little inclination to operate, and the transactions were very small. Among the sales were 300 bus No. 2 spring at 90c, 500 bus No. 1 at 94, 825 bus do at 95, and 1,000 bus extra at $1.

With largely increased receipts on Tuesday there was a better demand for No. 1, and the principal sales at the lower depots were 9,850 bus extra No. 1 at 93c 4,750 bus do at 95c, 525 bus warehouse extra at 98c, 1,297 bus milling extra at $1.

Wednesday's market was more active with, however, a downward tendency in prices. Sales of 475 bus No. 1 spring at 90c, 5,512 bus do at 93c, 5,812 bus do at 92c, 1,225 bus "warehouse extra" at 95c, 1,275 bus choice do at $1, 815 bus XXX do at $1,05, 250 bus white winter at $1,10, 240 bus do $1,14, 485 bus do at $1,16.

Thursday the market dull, and offers of buyers were fully 3c below the figures of the day previous, with very light sales.

On Friday the market rallied a little, and about 16,000 bushels changed hands on the Mil. & Miss. platform, mostly No. 1 at 90c.

The market has been rather quiet to-day with a downward tendency in prices. We note a decline of at least 4c in both milling and other grades of spring. The following are a few of the sales at the lower depots: 3,500 bus No. 1 at 89c, 512 bus extra at 95½c, 240 bus extra white winter at $1,15, 15 bus common do at $1.

Flour—In this article very little has been done during the week. Prices are somewhat lower yet; it has not declined in the same ratio with wheat. We quote spring extra country brands at $4,50a$5,00, with a downward tendency. We note sales of 270 bbls "Berlin City" mills, spring extra, at $5,00 delivered; 50 bbls "State Mills" do at same price; 34 bbls "Fox Lake Mills" superfine at $4.50; 75 bbls spring extras at $4,75, all delivered, and 140 bbls f. o. b. at $5.

Freights—Are more firm, and vessel owners have been obtaining 4a4½c on wheat to Buffalo during the week, and in some instances firmly asking 5c, but we have heard of no charters at this figure. The rate to Oswego is 8c, and on flour to Buffalo 20c.

Oats—Have been very dull and but few sales have been made during the week. Some 400 bushels were sold to-day at 40c. The range is 40a42, but there is only a very limited demand at present at any price.

Corn—Remains heavy at 60a62c. There was one sale to-day of 500 bus at the former figures.

Rye—We have heard of but few sales, and receipts are quite light. We quote Rye to-day quiet at 60a63c.

Barley—Is not so firm and is quoted to-day at 75a80c, 5 cents lower than last week.

Timothy Seed—$1,12½ a$1 25c.

Beans—50a62c.

Potatoes—Are worth from 25a30c for fair to choice samples.

Eggs—Are very dull at 8a10c in bbls.

Butter—Firkin continues heavy and is quoted at 10a12c; fresh roll 12½a15c.

Hides—Green 6c, salted 7c, dry 12½a14½c.

Wool—Unchanged, 25a30c for common domestic to ¾ blood fleece.

Salt—Delivered at $1.50 per bbl.

Highwines—Remain as noted last week, firm at 29½c.

Whiskey—Quiet at 20c in quantities over 5 bbls; 21c by the single bbl.

Spirits—Alcohol 54c, Spirits Turpentine 60c, Burning Fluid, 57c, Camphene 65c.

Oils—Linseed 85c, Lard 90a95c, Whale 65c.

White Lead $7,50a$8,50 per ton.

Wood—Mixed $2a2,25; maple $2,50a$.

THE GROCERY TRADE.

Since our last report trade has been quite brisk, until the storm commenced, which has tended to keep buyers at home.

We reduce our quotations ¼c on crushed and powdered sugars, and ¼ on yellow refined; hhd sugars are firm at prices last reported, as also are molasses and syrups.

There has been a good deal of speculation in these staples among the New York operators, greatly restricted, however, by the small stocks offered in market, while the prevalence of yellow fever in Cuba, and consequent quarantine regulations have prevented large importations. The stocks at the principal eastern ports foot up less than half the quantity on hand same time last year.

We notice that several transactions have taken place at New Orleans, predicated on the growing crop; in one instance the product of one entire plantation has been sold in advance at 9c, which would seem to indicate a confidence in still higher prices.

In teas and coffee we have no change to note. We quote:

Crushed sugar d refd 12¼; do C 11¼; Powdered d refd 12¼; do C 11¾; Refd white sugar C 11¾; Refd yellow A 10¾, do B 10¾.

GOODRICH & TERRY.

THE LUMBER TRADE.

Messrs. Houghton, Brown & Co. inform us that the retail lumber trade has been steadily improving during the past week, notwithstanding the heavy rains. The increased demand however is principally from the city, the demand from the country, as has been the case during the season, is still light. There were but few cargoes of lumber offered during the week. We note the following sales:

Cargo of brig Preble, Oconto.....................$7.
do do sch. Juniata Patton, do.....................$7.
do do do Emma, Michigan.....................$6.

Messrs. Houghton, Brown & Co., lumber dealers, furnish us with the following retail prices.

Clear plank $30, 2d do $25, clear boards $30, 2d do $29, 3d do $16, clear dressed flooring 23, 2d do $19, common do $15, clear siding $18, 2d do $10, common do $8, common boards, joist, and scantling, (green). $7, do dry $8, "A" shingles $2 75, No. 1 do $2 25a$2,50, lath $2,50, cedar posts 18 per hundred, pickets per m $10.

Messrs. H. Ludington & Co. quote:

MONEY MARKET.

Banking and Exchange Office of Bridge Brothers, No. 166 East Water St., Mil., Sept. 11, '58.

It is beyond a doubt true that indecision is at present the prevailing feature of the Financial world. We note it in our foreign advices, in the daily reports of transactions at the East, and it is evident in home operations. Few realize how deeply the knife cut during the disastrous season we have been passing through, and many an old sore will break out afresh, and many a new one make its appearance before the great business body finds a healthy action again. At the same time we look forward with much hope, and see before us many signs of amendment.

During the last week the Bankers of this State have held a convention in this city, and some forty five banks were represented. An agreement was entered into to redeem the circulating notes of the so-called "wild cats," by Exchange on New York, in Milwaukee, at ¾ per cent less than the current rate of Exchange, or in Madison at ¾ per cent less than the current rate, providing that Exchange is not lower than 1 per cent in Milwaukee. The Banks referred to have formed an association for the purpose of protecting not only their own interests, but the financial integrity and character of the whole State. Mr Alexander Mitchell has been chosen President, and will be assisted by an able board of directors, whose names (already known to the public) afford the strongest guaranty that any action taken hereafter will be in the right direction, and will make even more reliable what is now the soundest of any of the State currencies. The names of the redeeming agents, either at Milwaukee or Madison will be published before the 1st of October next, the time set for the commencement of redemptions on the above basis, and it is expected that by that date every Bank in the State will have become a party to the movement.

Exchange is quite scarce and rates are firm at selling..........................1 ⅌ cent premium.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Goods, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed upon with Goods of a worthless character.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the Secretary of State, in Madison, up to the twenty-third day of September next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for doing for the State of Wisconsin, at the seat of government, all Printing and binding of every kind and description, for which the State may be liable to pay, contemplated in chapter 114 of the General Laws of 1858, entitled "An Act relating to Printing, approved May 17th, 1858." Such printing to be provided for in one contract, to continue for two or four years from the first day of January next, as the Board of Commissioners may direct at any time before such contract is entered into, and to be divided into three classes, as follows:

1st. To comprise all printing incident to the business of the two Houses of the Legislature while in session.

2d. To comprise the journals and documents of the two Houses, and all general and local laws passed by the Legislature.

3d. The printing of the several State departments, including all blanks, blank books used in the several branches thereof of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever; to include such blanks as have heretofore been lithographed or engraved, used in the several departments.

No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a guarantee of twenty thousand dollars that the bidder if successful, will execute to the State a bond as contemplated in said act. Specifications as to what shall constitute a printing bid, will be subject to examination at the office of the Secretary of State on and after the 23d day of August. Such specifications together with the proposal of the successful bidder to be attached to and form a portion of the contract at the time of consummating the same.

A basis will be adopted by the Commissioners, to be in readiness at the hour of opening the bids, upon which basis each of the bids will be computed, but said basis will form no part of the contract, and will in no manner be binding upon the State as to the quantity of the work required.

Bidders are required to furnish specimens of each class of all classes of work bid for. Such specimens as are deposited by the successful bidder shall be kept by the Secretary of State, as a standard criterion for all work provided for in such contract, and shall be the guide for auditing all accounts under the same. Should any work prove inferior to such specimens, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, or other officer duly authorized to canvass the same, such work will be refused.

The successful bidder will be required to execute under the terms of his contract, all printing and binding for the State, which the present contractor is not bound to execute, or which he claims not to be under the provisions of his contract from the execution of such contract to the first day of January next.

The contract may be annulled for unreasonable delay in doing the work, or for doing it in an inferior or improper manner. The contract for such printing to be made and executed under and subject to the provisions of chapter 114 of the general laws of 1858, above referred to, the details of which, as well as to the specifications and requirements as to bids, above referred to, the attention of bidders is particularly called.

Proposals must be sealed and marked on the outside "Proposals for Printing," and be sent through the post office, directed to the Secretary of State, Madison, Wis."

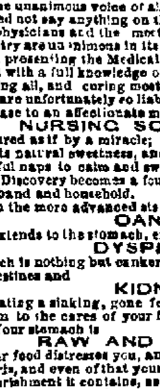
MEDICAL.



THE GREATEST
DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimple on the face.

Two or three bottles will clear the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Roxbury, Mass.

Dear Madam:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother, is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

NURSING SORE MOUTH,

In the more advanced stages of it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA,

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then to the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follow a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also, that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce the best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel the disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distempers, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to their whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill.—While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of numerous complaints.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them and they should have it.
